Josh DiPaolo

Student 1: “This class was amazing! You really brought it to a level that we as a class could connect with. ... I took metaphysics before this class but so wish I had this beforehand. You should consider teaching that also!”

Student 2: “Not only were you prepared for class but you also were actively trying to improve every single class throughout the semester. ... Actively made changes to improve learning and understanding. Always a comfortable classroom environment.”

Student 3: “Josh was a very good teacher. I think that I learned a lot from him because he always had a positive attitude about the class.”

Student 5: “To me it is very clear you’re passionate about what you teach, that we truly learn the material, think for ourselves and I really value that in my teachers and think it helps me get more out of the class.”

Student 6: “I wish I could take more classes with Prof. DiPaolo.”

Student 7: “I really enjoyed this class and I think you did a great job at presenting interesting material and finding ways to help us relate class to real life. ... I appreciate the fact that you tried new things – the Skype in for Wodak was really cool!”

Student 8: “Great class, probably my favorite philo class I have taken.”

Student 9: “Josh is such an understanding & cool teacher. He teaches ~Really~ weird stuff but is able to communicate it in such a way that makes it fun & easy to understand. He’s in tune w/ his students so he knows when we don’t understand something or need an extension.”

Student 10: “An awesome professor who really cares about his students.”

Student 11: “Enjoyed this class more than any of my previous philo classes.”

Student 12: “I have really enjoyed this class. I have found the real world applications to be the most helpful and interesting to learn about.”

Student 14: “I loved this class!”

Student 17: “I thought Professor DiPaolo did a fantastic job teaching this class. The assignments were fun and engaging and I looked forward to each class period. I feel very at home in his courses and that helps with great discussion which we have often.”
